(Young Argo)

This goes out to you & you & you.

(KC Wilson)

I can't comprehend what I'm feeling right now, this spell you've cast on me is taken over some how, never has there been a woman whose so unique and gets inside my head, even wins and deepened sleep and I say...

(Chorus)

Baby, whatever you want,
Baby, whatever you need,
Baby don't hesitate you know that I will give it to you

Baby, whatever you want,
Baby, whatever you need,
Baby don't hesitate to call you know I will give it to you..

(KC Wilson)

I hope the world that we live in isn't just fantasy, oh no..
no need to act for me, girl just get married to me, never had there been a woman so down for me & I'm not a selfish so I'll do the same if I can..

(Chorus)

Baby, whatever you want,
Baby whatever you need,
Baby don't hesitate you know that I will give it to you

Baby, whatever you want,
Baby whatever you need,
Baby don't hesitate to call you know that I will give it to you

(Kc Wilson)

(KC Wilson)
