Still my eyes are open wide
Just a sound that I cry tonight
Again and again
And the sound of a breaking heart
What once was love turned into despair
No more dreams that I'd like to share
Another part of me has died
One more that I've sacrificed
Again and again
And the sound of a breaking heart
Do you believe in destiny
Or is it just my fantasy

In this coldest night I'm all alone
Come out here in the distance
I still feel for you
Love is meant to last forever
But you proved to me
I am not

Did you hear my cries at night
Did you ever know my fears
Why did you ignore the signs
And pretend that I was fine
I'm strong and I'll carry on
'Til my heart feels again
No one has the right to take away my smile

In this coldest night I'm all alone
Come out here in the distance
I still feel for you
Love is meant to last forever
But you proved to me
In this coldest night I'm all alone
Come out here in the distance
I still feel for you
Love is meant to last forever
But you proved to me
I am not
