Forgive and be forgiven
Salvation comes when you regret
Love and teach how to love
And never deal with the devil

But why did no one ever teach with this
Why do I creep through the night without sleep
But why did no one ever teach with this
Why do I creep through the night without sleep

I have to choose the way
Paved by trial and hate
Now it's too late to make me see

All I want is a place that I can call my home
But once, I got locked somewhere in between
And I wonder who has turned my heart to stone
Though I do regret, the door's still locked

LOST IN BETWEEN
Without hope
Without fear
LOST IN BETWEEN
Without dreams
LOST IN BETWEEN

I paid the price for no one was there
When I needed help, I was all alone
All my hopes burned
All my hopes burned
All my dreams burned

I have to choose the way
Paved by trial and hate
Now it's too late to make me see

All I want is a place that I can call my home
But once, I got locked somewhere in between
And I wonder who has turned my heart to stone
Though I do regret, the door's still locked

LOST IN BETWEEN
Without hope
Without fear
LOST IN BETWEEN
Without dreams

I feel hate for the ones who left me behind
I still remember when I was a little child
All alone in my room, with no one by my side
Who should've taught me how to dream

All alone in my room
With no one by my side
Who should've taught me how to dream
All alone in my room
With no one by my side
Who should've taught me how to dream
(Lost in between)
All alone
(Lost in between)
With no one by my side
(Lost in between)
Who should've taught me how to
(Lost in between)
How to dream

... Call my home
But once, I got locked somewhere in between
And I wonder who has turned my heart to stone
Though I do regret, the door's still locked

Without hope
Without fear
LOST IN BETWEEN
Without dreams
