"Come and See"

Look up here,
Most people can't make out the difference
But it could be a small change
In the light

And sometimes
We watch our lives align
But the questions remain:
Did you will it? Is Sight benign

Is it coincidence of connection?
Come and See
Fall to your knees
and hear the call
Are you still lovesick for it all

Is it you that Beguines the same sea that
Curves my path and life-lines
Is your shine like mine?

And the difference between Betting your life or dying
Could reveal itself in a small change
In the light

Is this coincidence or connection?
come and see
fall to your knees
and hear the call
Are you still lovesick for it all?
