Hey

Here it comes again the beautiful warm weather
Right before the end of everything forever
The end of bars and clubs with lines around the block
The crowded dancefloors winding up to feel the drop
So meet me by the river,
let's go for a ride
With the windows down and the stereo loud.

Feels like a dream tonight,
a little break in time,
as we howl at the moon.
OooooOooooOooooOooo
Feels like a dream tonight,
a little break in time,
as we howl at the moon
OooooOooooOooooOooo
Hey,
it's a new summer.
Can we live there..
like it's our last one?
OooooOooooOooooOooo

It never would have been as good if built to last We never would have stood a chance if it didn't move fast
The end will come for holidays and sweet sixteen For friends and getting lost in your computer screen
So meet me by the river,
let's go for a ride
With the windows down and the stereo loud.

Feels like a dream tonight,
a little break in time,
as we howl at the moon.
OooooOooooOooooOooo

Feels like a dream tonight,
a little break in time,
as we howl at the moon
OooooOooooOooooOooo
Hey,
it's a new summer.
Can we live there..
like it's our last one?
OooooOooooOooooOooo
Feels like a dream tonight,
a little break in time,
as we howl at the moon.
OooooOooooOooooOooo
Feels like a dream tonight,
a little break in time,
as we howl at the moon
OooooOooooOooooOooo
Hey,
it's a new summer.
Can we howl at the moon?
OooooOooooOooooOooo
