[Intro]

I'm in this shit right here, just for ya to know this, it's roDDie, Dã m Black in this bitch, Crada in this bitch got me looking good in here, I'ma do it like this:

[Verse 1]

some people go crazy, it's real some people get pissed, it's real some of them might lose it, it's real some people fire random shots nigga you don't wanna know what type of tick I rock talk your lip sucka, you only got one life approximate running time left, the length of this track wonder how could he get back like that, this nigga? dã m right, I'm quick in this shit now take it as you want it, but let's see it as it is you underestimate my shit, you come close to my fist verbally i like that, inhale one herbally then fronted front row, now you down with the surgery slipped the fuck up, it's killin me homie tell me who the who now?
ain't I build my swag up on this and diss you now?
sucka nah, this would flaw, you better off knowing fact that a nigga can destroy you get the picture, no pistol whipped ya just my rhymes that be comin at ya dome like a twista rhymes that be comin at ya dome like a twista rhymes that be comin at ya dome like a twista, nigga

[Chorus]

(I don't wanna do this to you)
nah, 'cause I can't confuse strength with weakness
(I don't wanna do this to you)
nah, Lord, I'm a good kid believe it
(I don't wanna do this to you)
uh, 'cause I can't confuse strength with weakness
(I don't wanna do this to you)

brotha, why you front tryin to reach me

[Verse 2]

still joking with explosives, knowing they might blow your ass up like you stuck on some action movies it's real though, don't play with fire if you know you can't take the heat trust me six feet is deep a lotta cats said it before, I ain't just gonna repeat it like some of them parrott suckas tend to achieve flossin' on the down low, do you wanna believe it word is born again in time, you better stop deceiving I walk through y'all eveyday and eyes capture ears identify, you got checked before you move trip on whatever, I question you smooth, when you feel like King, I let you be I do my thing and let you reign your so-called kingdome
from the beginning to the very funny end I hope you learn to swim when the water's to your neck and when them fake homies operate behind your back you got this homie, I'm sure you got this just never claim the title King if you really wanna live claim the title King if you really wanna live

[Chorus]

(I don't wanna do this to you)
nah, 'cause I can't confuse strength with weakness
(I don't wanna do this to you)
nah, Lord, I'm a good kid believe it
(I don't wanna do this to you)
uh, 'cause I can't confuse strength with weakness
(I don't wanna do this to you)
brotha, why you front tryin to reach me

[Verse 3]

suckas wonder why when they do it, it ain't legit it's simple, you ain't living this shit and I don't say you feel nothing, when I say you ain't feeling it
I just say your disadvantage is the lack of your spirit and this game's spirit 100 per cent, matter fact it's not a game
so your chances be 2 outta 10 and I don't even disrespect you, you gotta earn that, too, sucka

there's nothing for free in this world there's always a price to pay so your prize is just to sit your ass down and watch them other who play
it's like trying to push heavy weight but only to celebrate then come up with a physique that is softer than pussy cake suckas want that ice nowadays and pimped out cars, can't drive but a full garage
it's like you ain't got a dick but set up a menage two rubbers on your two hands to say yours is largest, nah
no techs, no warez and no gadgets make a sucka like you own a spot
and that's that I'm constantly moving and proving, I'm a nigga you ain't like to fuck
with
it's roDDie bitch...

[Chorus]

(I don't wanna do this to you)
nah, 'cause I can't confuse strength with weakness
(I don't wanna do this to you)
nah, Lord, I'm a good kid believe it
(I don't wanna do this to you)
uh, 'cause I can't confuse strength with weakness
(I don't wanna do this to you) and we ain't gon' stop til mission completed

[Outro]

(I don't wanna do this to you) check it hard, check it hard
(I don't wanna do this to you)
Young roDDie, Dã m Black in this muthafucka
(I don't wanna do this to you)
hey yo Crada, hehhehe
(I don't wanna do this to you)
did some bomb work on that shit
(I don't wanna do this to you)
