Chorus:

Blackberry molasses
One of the things that never change
You got to keep pushin on
The sun don't rain all the time
There's gonna be some heartache and pain
Woke up sunday morning
Got a little bad news today
They say my life ain't worth living
And time is slowly ticking away
Don't think that i'm going crazy
Cause thoughts keep runnin through my head
I know I gotta be strong, gotta hold on Sometimes I rather give up instead
Seems like i'm better off dead

(Chorus)

Don't tellme how to live my life
After all that we've been through
Don't wanna hear bout your hardships
Cause I've been there myself a time or two Still life goes on if you just keep holdin on
So many things to survive won't to realize
There's no such place as paradise
At least in my eyes

(Chorus)
