I'll remain humble, as my heart is always open
Because I understand, behind every great man
Is a stronger woman
Anything that you need
After all that we've been through Girl there's no limit to the things that I'm gonna do for you

And baby no matter how high I climb
I'll always be two steps behind you
'Cause every time I look into your eyes
I see the pain that was caused
And baby I apologize
That's why I
That's why I

I think that I should be the only one to love you
And you should be with me for the rest of my life
I think that I should be the only one to love you
And you should be with me for the rest of my life

Crack the window baby, the rain is on its way
To wash away your worries baby from your busy day
Like a jewel in the Nile
You're such a sight to see
It's hard for me to fathom
Anyone loving you but me

And baby no matter how high I climb
I'll always be two steps behind you
'Cause every time I look into your eyes
I see the pain that was caused
And baby I apologize
That's why I
That's why I

I think that I should be the only one to love you
And you should be with me for the rest of my life
I think that I should be the only one to love you
And you should be with me for the rest of my life

So baby just tell me

What's bothering you?
And I'll, I'll be right there for you
'Cause no man, no man, no man

I think that I should be the only one to love you
And you should be with me for the rest of my life
I think that I should be the only one to love you
And you should be with me for the rest of my life

I should be with you, you should be with me
For the rest of my life
I should be with you, you should be with me
For the rest of my life
I should be with you, you should be with me
For the rest of my life
