So shine on, shine on
Never forgotten and only missed
I couldn't bare to see you in deaths arms
So shine on, shine on
Never forgotten and only missed
The mind is dying but the heart stays strong
The heart stays strong

Goodbyes are meaningless when you know it's forever Endless nights were closing in never knowing that was fucking it
I don't believe in God but I still feel you so close
A mother, sister, lover taken away to young

So shine on, shine on
Never forgotten and only missed
I couldn't bare to see you in deaths arms
So shine on, shine on
Never forgotten and only missed
The mind is dying but the heart stays strong

All roads may lead to here but they shouldn't end so soon
Watching the life being stolen from your body
Goodbyes are meaningless when you know it's forever

So shine on, shine on
Never forgotten and only missed
I couldn't bare to see you in deaths arms
So shine on, shine on
Never forgotten and only missed
The mind is dying but the heart stays so fucking strong

In the end you let go
In the end you gave up
In the end I said goodbye

In the end you let go
In the end you gave up
In the end
In the end I said goodbye

So shine on, shine on
Never forgotten and only missed
I couldn't bare to see you in deaths arms
So shine on, shine on
Never forgotten and only missed
The mind is dying but the heart stays strong
