Won't sleep on the floor, like I should have known
Dreams are colors, when November's chrome
I've lost my way looking for more
Life's way too fast oh baby that's for sure

I might be wrong, well I don't know
Just feel it's time, for me to go

You killed me once, guess I'll be fine
Nothing's perfect, nothing's pretty
Between the lies, I've changed my mind
I hate you more and I'm sorry

Don't tell me goodbye, like I was the one
Tears are wonders when salvation's gone
I've ripped my soul watching you cry
Love ain't sugar oh baby that's for sure

I might be wrong, well I don't know
Just feel it's time, for me to go

You killed me once, guess I'll be fine
Nothing's perfect, nothing's pretty
Between the lies, I've changed my mind
I hate you more and I'm sorry

I've watched you sleep last night, you're beautiful
I blessed your feet but should have known
Memories are sweet and Merciful
Dreams are colors when November's chrome

You killed me once, guess I'll be fine
Nothing's perfect, nothing's pretty
Between the lies, I've changed my mind
I hate you more and I'm sorry

I might be wrong, well I don't know
Just feel it's time, for me to go
