Damn my nigga, it was good just a week ago
Who would have thought that she went to chris
And I would see her go
I kept the cold but nowadays no one believe in those I had to back this how I seen it when you hit the door
They say when it rains it pours
Bitch IÂ'm under water
So every midnight I return to my heavenly father
I realized nobody knows you when you hit the bottom
They give you 30 but soon as she come around I got em
I used to feel like fuck the world, nowadays itÂ's still the same
I never cried myself to sleep, I stayed and took the pain
Real shit, fuck niggas with they fakin ass
And fuck bitches in the dark, they so a shakin ass ItÂ's hoe it now but I know one day all this shit will pass
I feel they only lookin down cause now IÂ'm on my ass
They used to try Â...and took me out, itÂ's on the gas
I would have heard them if my stupid ass wasnÂ't skippin class

[Hook]

When thangs get hard man, who u gone turn to?
Thangs get hard man, who u gone turn to?
Better hope them niggas that you with never burn you
Better hope them bitches that you with never burn you

When my mama died feeled like my world turnt up and down
Daddy died, father side, I donÂ't even talk to them God up in heaven, wish man I could take a walk with him
ItÂ's often them that follow him, who offer then support for men
Religion cause confusion to these children of this orphanage
In the ghetto we are orphans, in the ghettoÂ's hell, of course it is
Of course it is, smile, you used to keep high the tears of pain

Grinding for so damn long with nothin to show of years of game
My peers remain, stuck behind some prison chains Recipients of life, just for living strange Life sentences, damn they was giving maine
Stuck in the cell, was hard to hide this hidden pain Forbid in vain, forget in fame
Lil nigga got shot, cause he hit the block
All with a bigger chain
Hell is hot, on my block it will burn to you Cause when it's hard man, who u gone turn to

[Hook]

When thangs get hard man, who u gone turn to?
Thangs get hard man, who u gone turn to?
Better hope them bitches that you with never burn you

You know they way what go around come around
So you know my time is coming yo, yeah
