

Your Sweet Uncertainty "End Scene"

Visit "End Scene" on MotoLyrics.com

It's everything that you say!

This is the end of everything
The fall of calm which we've failed to bring
We can't share, you're halfway there

The time has come to say goodnight
(it all went wrong)
'Cause what was left, you took that right
(you know it's all your fault)
This second chance I shall regret
(you know it's all your fault)
'Cause broken hearts will not forget.

It's everything that you say!

So this is how you choose to leave
When your fake world turned reality.
One more time, I'm dead inside.

The time has come to say goodnight
(it all went wrong)
'Cause what was left, you took that right
(you know it's all your fault)
This second chance I shall regret
(you know it's all your fault)
'Cause broken hearts will not forget, forget.

The time has come to say goodnight
(it all went wrong)
'Cause what was left, you took that right
(you know it's all your fault)
This second chance I shall regret
(you know it's all your fault)
It's all your fault...
