So I come, to you little darling
Broken down and hearted
I run till I hit the floor
But never ever did I think of all the pain in store
Now I don't need you girl, I feel I could lose world
So please pardon me one more time

You know you make me high
You know I'll never wanna go...down

Shh... don't say another
Words are undercovers
Pace as we get hush hush,
And then we'll turn the lights out until the sun comes up
I want what they do, it's what I'm so used to
So please pardon my washed up mind

You know you make me high
You know I'll never wanna go...

Don't forget all your love...
