Say something, something that's better now
This is the only, the only way we know how
In these times we forget the truth
In these moments mark our headfall
Keep dreaming on

Don't wait up (wait up, wait up)
This is my fight for freedom
Full-heart, still pouring
And this will be the last one
The one that dreams are made of
Don't take this wrong
But I'm not coming home

In the end, we will find
The best's what's kept away with time
In the end, we will find
The best's what's kept away with time

Don't weigh it down

Don't wait up (wait up, wait up)
This is my fight for freedom
Full-heart, still pouring
And this will be the last one
The one that dreams are made of
Don't take this wrong
But I'm not coming home.

All we are has come
All we are has come
All we are has come

And all we are has come
And I'll take this fall, baby
I'm not coming home.
