This taste, so sweet
This place, and what it means
Tonight I'm all alone
Distracting evil tone

Place the monkey on my back
And disregard the heart attack
'Cause I'm not that bad,
I'm just burned and stabbed

Take each picture down
And don't you dare back out
And in this turn about...

Say it loud, say it proud

Stand! up straight
This is a knockout, this is the last round
For all your second chance wins
Slam! my faith
This is the rock out, for every song now
Starting with A into B

We raise, a single hand
For praise, and our fellow man
Sore bones from head to toe
I'm stuck on planet no.
Hanging over on the deck
The stench inside of disrespect
Why take the hit?
We just don't fit
(Just don't fit, admit it!)

Stand! up straight
This is a knockout, this is the last round
For all your second chance wins
Slam! my faith
This is the rock out, for every song now
Starting with A into B
