

Youth Alive WA "Take Over"

Visit "Take Over" on MotoLyrics.com

My eyes are red from tears
This world just seems to hard to take
IÂ'm losing control
My soul feels dead inside
These wounds could never be erased
Can someone make me whole

Look into my eyes and see
You mean more than life to me
Let me be the water to your soul

ItÂ's in You that I can
Take this life by the hand
And shine You for all to see
My life is in Your hands
IÂ'm not my own
IÂ'm Yours now
Take over me

You called me from the fire
You breathed Your life into my lungs
Now I will never be the same
The screams that tortured my soul
Your words of love
Have now replaced
You have made me whole
