So you know you tore my heart right out for a second time
And I hear you're hanging around the favorite watering holes
Then I told everyone that you was nothing more than a wrecking machine
And I'll meet you oh-whoa, only you and all your securities

Good-bye, take it as it comes That's the common misconception of the dreamer on the run
Decide, if you are alive
And all these visionary people are so bad in your eyes
And get high, taker of the life
Don't you wonder what's inside that keeps your drive so alive?
Good-bye, I miss you all along
Hope it's happy all alone, I'm the smile in your life

So I hear you're married now on the outskirts of town to a gambling hand
And you know this man will never have a poker hand as good as mine
And I think you know now that I am the one who's the
wrecking machine
And I'll meet you oh-whoa only in our memories

Good-bye, take it as it comes
That's the common misconception of the dreamer on
the run
Decide, if you are alive
And all these visionary people are so bad in your eyes
And get high, taker of the life
Don't you wonder what's inside that keeps your drive so
alive?
Good-bye, I miss you all along
Hope it's happy all alone, I'm the smile in your life
