Would you drink his blood again
and then pass away the dreams
that you left?
Almost there, but you can be yourself when you're on drugs, yeah.

I don't mind if you don't care.
Anyway it's the same game.
In this world when you feel sad,
pull the trigger one last time.

I don't mind if you don't care.
It's the same mistake all over again.
Would you call me if I'm back?
Would you please step inside my mind?

Every word I said, I spoke,
everything is just left behind.
I don't mind if you don't care.
My life will flash with a blink of your fuckin' eye.

Body safe when you're not here.
Body safe when you're lock down.
Body safe when you're not here.
Almost there, but you can't be yourself.
This warm machine guns
