Song by The Deleted

(Yes, I will stand alone.)

(Yes, I will stand alone.)

Stand up, and show your face while I erase the traces,

Of all that came before me and you know that

Fate has turned its tides you cannot hide,

But now the end is here.

Because of me, your world has crumbled. I can't be ignored!

Because of me, your falisy is history

And I will stand alone. Yes, I will stand alone!

Your world is under misery.

Soon to be another casualty.

All because of your catastrophe.

You better fear me!

On the verge of immortality,

Put it into your ontogamy.

I'm the villain in your tragety.

You better fear me!

I was your victim now your system's crashed

And now I'm the wound that will not heal. You are defenseless,

Your sences to evade me can't persuade me,

And now your fate is set.

Because of you, darkness has prevaded my whole world.

Because of you, anxiety has paralized me!

I will stand alone. Yes, I will stand alone!

You are now in my custody,

No longer in humanity.

You'll be of adopted memory.

You better fear me!

No longer in your tyranny,

You'll never walk in front of me!

Time to take control of destiny.

You better fear me!

(Yes, I will stand alone.)

(Yes, I will stand alone.)

I will stand alone!

Because of me, your world has crumbled. I can't be ignored!

Because of me, your falisy is history

And I will stand alone. Yes, I will stand alone!

Your world is under misery.

Soon to be another casualty.

All because of your catastrophe.

You better fear me!

On the verge of immortality,

Put it into your ontogamy.

I'm the villain in your tragety.

You better fear me!

No longer in your tyranny,

You'll never walk in front of me!

Time to take control of destiny.

You better fear me!

You are now in my custody,

No longer in humanity.

You'll be of adopted memory.

You better fear me!

(You cannot hide!)

(You cannot hide!)
