When I'm feeling small

When it's cold outside

I don't know who I should believe

And when I needed someone special just by my side

Who was there?

When I'm feeling old

When it's rain outside

I don't know who is holding me

And when I need a little kind and tender moment

Who's with me?

I believe someday I will love

Someone who's by my side

Oh someday

My special one will come alone

I keep on praying

When I'm lost inside

When I'm down and out

I don't know who I should recall

And when I needed someone precious

just be my side

No one there no one was there

I believe someday I will love

Someone who's by my side

Oh someday

My special one will come alone

I'll pray everyday

I believe someday I will love

Someone who's by my side

Oh someday oh someday

I keep on praying everyday
