What was I doing?
What was I thinking?
What was I smoking?
And was I drinking?
I wish that I could stop...
Rewind, take back those times
When I had hurt you
When I had lied to you
When I had told you that you were my baby, boo
I thought that, those times were true but,
I guess I did not know
That time would come to slow
Down at the end of this
Our love would soon fade away
And I'm gonna miss the days that We would sit up on my car, and,
We would laugh and we shared tears, and,
We would sit back and enjoy years, cause,
We were in love, a young love
But times grow old, and times get cold
And I wish, if I could turn back time
It'd be 10 months later
And I'd let you be on your own
So, you would not grow through pain
You could be on your way
And never had, have me in your life
I'm so sorry
I'm obtrusive
I can't believe that I had abused this track
And I have told you that I'm sorry, more than a million times
More times than I will breathe, in a life time, in a life time
Baby...
I'm so... Sorry...

I'm Fuckin Sorry...
