We 're all the same
With different looks
Different names
Voices far away
I bet you're alone today
My regards to the talk of the town
Some stay in bed
While the others are down
Havin' fun of me
Electricity
Injurious
So logical
Injenuous
At the end look at what you've got
My little girl
Beeing true to you
But you did things
Other people do
This is what i found
Other way around
Days are still as they used to be
But i won't state my philosophy
Such a waste of time
Silence will be fine
