Open the door it's cold all alone
I could freeze like the time
Would you care I bet you won't
Please open up I'm out here on my own
Open the door it's cold all alone

Been standing here for seven hours
Black out there is no power
I can't find my way
It's OK your usually late
Never ever new same old thing
I'll just wait

Open the door it's cold all alone
I could freeze like the time
Would you care I bet you won't
Please open up I'm out here on my own
Open the door it's cold all alone

Been standing here for seven plus houses now
I'm sweet now I'm sour
I can't find my way
It's OK your usually late

Never ever new same old thing
I'll just wait

Open the door it's cold all alone
I could freeze like the time
Would you care I bet you won't
Please open up I'm out here on my own
Open the door it's cold all alone

Open the door it's cold all alone
I could freeze like the time
Would you care I bet you won't
Please open up I'm out here on my own
Open the door it's cold all alone

Open the door it's cold all alone
I could freeze like the time
Would you care I bet you won't

Please open up I'm out here on my own
Open the door it's cold all alone
