Jacob Black, she's not coming back
La Push has come to shove and she's through with you Don't you see you're just a dog to me?
If you come near her again I'll eat you too

First you missed her, then you kissed her
I was watching, you think you're fine
I'm waiting, contemplating, don't you screw up or you're mine

First you missed her, then you kissed her
I was watching, you think you're fine
I'm waiting, contemplating, don't you screw up or
you're mine

You're nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
And it's time for you to face the truth

You're nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
And she's still way to good for you

Watch your back 'cause who knows what I'll do
Jacob Black I've got my eye on you

The other day I thought I heard you say
"May the best man win," but I see through your ploy
You may think that you are on the brink
Of winning her love but you are just a boy

First you missed her, then you kissed her,
I was watching, you think you're fine
I'm waiting, contemplating, don't you screw up or
you're mine

First you missed her, then you kissed her
I was watching, you think you're fine
I'm waiting, contemplating, don't you screw up or
you're mine

You're nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
And it's time for you to face the truth.

You're nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
And she's still way to good for you

Watch your back 'cause who knows what I'll do
Jacob Black I've got my eye on you

You were there to save her life when I was far away
Differences aside, and I say thank you anyway
The bigger man will shake your hand and pretty soon you'll see
That in your mind you're kissing her, in life she's kissing me

You're nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
And it's time for you to face the truth

You're nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
Nothing but a dog
And she's still way to good for you

Watch your back 'cause who knows what I'll do
Jacob Black I've got my eye on you
