Let's lie down, love
by the radio
live and breathe
by the radio

I'm trying to avoid your look I stare at the radio I don't wanna talk things out just listen to the radio

We gotta change it all again
We gotta change it all again
yes, we gotta change it all again do we have to bring this up again?

What you don't know, love wasting by the radio tomorrow I'll be gone I'm taking the radio right now the music's pumping out from the radio in a minute we'll start to dance to the radio

yeah, we gotta change it all again
do we have to bring this up again?

And we're dancing close together and you know that I'm a goner but we don't talk about why 'cause the radio is playing far too loud that's right

we gotta change it all
