Album: True Love (1999)

a moment later i burst into fire delinquent in me, thorned up and tired and it stroke me so hard i wonder if my soul survive i don't know,i've never been much for karma anyhow it doesn't bother me more than you do now and things can get so much worse than they are now (sweet lord)
oh lord i don't need no safety net tonight, oh no i don't need no safety net tonight that talk about guilt ain't gonna get me
that talk about guilt ain't gonna get me then things happened so fast, i wonder if my soul survive if only i could speak to you or just touch you i'd be fine

it doesn't bother me more than you do now i haven't felt so much worse than i do now (sweet lord)
oh lord i don't need no safety net tonight,

and no one needs, no redemption, just switch on solitude on time

and things do not get so much worse than they are now (sweet lord)
but lord i will not be the loser in our fight
and noone needs no redemption, just switch on
solitude on time
