A moment later I burst into fire
Delinquent in me, thorned up and tired
And it stroke me so hard I wonder if my soul survive
I don't know, I've never been much for karma anyhow

It doesn't bother me more than you do now
And things can get so much worse than they are now
(sweet lord)
Oh lord I don't need no safety-net tonight,
Oh no I don't need no safety-net tonight

That talk about guilt ain't gonna get me
That talk about guilt ain't gonna get me
Then things happened so fast, I wonder if my soul survive
If only I could speak to you or just touch you I'd be fine

It doesn't bother me more than you do now
And things can get so much worse than they are now
(sweet lord)
Oh lord I don't need no safety-net tonight,
Oh no I don't need no safety-net tonight

And no one needs, no redemption
Just switch on solitude on time

It doesn't bother me more than you do now
And things can get so much worse than they are now
(sweet lord)
But lord I will not be the loser in our fight
Oh lord I don't need no safety-net tonight

And no one needs no redemption
