Let's stick together now
Things are looking pretty by your side
But the more we communicate
The more I'm just a movement in your eye

And for what it's worth I'm holding on
Holding on you should too
Tear of my skin
Take look at somebody you knew

Why won't you believe in me?
Are my loving intentions in vain?
I'm counting my sleepless nights
And I'm begging for attention like a dog

Why won't you believe in me?
When I'm trying and I want it so bad
And I hope that you comprehends
That I'm not one who's gonna last

Let's stick together now
Hands around each others throats so tight
You look so Irresistible
Your already pale skin turns white

And the pounding in my head
Is counting the strokes of my heart
I should have known
It's gonna be like this until we part

Why won't you believe in me?
Are my loving intentions in vain?
I'm counting my sleepless nights
And I'm begging for attention like a dog

Why won't you believe in me?
When I'm trying and i want it so bad
I hope that you comprehends
That I'm not one who's gonna last

And the sicker we get

The more twisted we get
The sicker we get
The more twisted we get
The sicker we get
The more twisted we get
The sicker we get
The more twisted we get

Why won't you believe in me?
Are my loving intentions in vain?
I'm counting my sleepless nights
And I'm begging for attention like a dog

Why won't you believe in me?
When I'm trying and i want it so bad
I hope that you comprehends
That I'm not one who's gonna last

Why won't you believe in me?
Are my loving intentions in vain?
I'm counting my sleepless nights
And I'm begging for attention like a dog

Why won't you believe in me?
When I'm trying and i want it so bad
I hope that you comprehends
That I'm not one who's gonna last

Why wont' you believe in me?
I'm counting my sleepless nights
I'm counting my sleepless nights
