Even in your roughest times you won't be overcome.
So when that ache bites your heart feel my love.

If you are wondering if I'm around
I have never left your side.
You are never by yourself.
You are not alone tonight.

Chorus

So now don't you let your heart be troubled.
The peace I bring to you is not of this world.
I set your mind at ease, I quiet down your soul.
I give you peace, don't let your heart be troubled.

I can dry your tear filled eyes.

I can hear your heavy heart.
So don't you be afraid tonight.
My light is shining through your dark.

If you're wondering where I'm at now,
In your despair I'm gonna be your hope.
I am always there, you're never ever by yourself.
You are not alone.

Chorus

I can still your swirling soul.
In your darkness my light grows.
Don't let your heart be troubled,
I give you peace
