Hope, so surreal.
It's something that we touch
And it's something that we feel.
When you're here, next to me,
It's hard to think it's make believe.

I'll sing you to sleep,
I hope this melody will keep you awake
Late at night take a breathe and hold on tight.
This time I'm falling in love
And this I'm falling in love, with you.

'Cause I'm falling every time I'm around you
When the music surrounds you,
You fall at your knees.
'Cause I love you and I mean it forever,
Things will only get better as time and time moves on.

If dreams do come true then even when our time,
Beneath the stars is through,
I'll be here in your thoughts and in your dreams.
This time I'm falling in love
And this I'm falling in love, with you girl.

'Cause I'm falling every time I'm around you
When the music surrounds you,
You fall at your knees.
'Cause I love you and I mean it forever,
Things will only get better as time and time moves on (on and on).

'Cause I saw it I swear it you want it,
You wear it, those things you do.
I'm done with you,
I saw it what you did and I won't keep running.

'Cause I'm falling every time I'm around you.
When the music surrounds you,
You fall at your knees.
'Cause I love you and I mean it forever,
Things will only get better as time and time moves on.
