(verse 1)

You know your smile reminds me of a setting sun
Before the nights just begun
And your eyes are so deep, and full of love
Like shining stars from above

I wish you a home from your heart
And may you never get hurt
Don't let anyone ever tell you what your worth

Remember to follow your dreams
Whatever they may be

Just as long as they make you happy

(Pre-chorus)

Hold onto your dreams
if it seems that they are so far away
If there's one thing I've learned
Is that the tables will always turn
I'll see you in Summer

(Chorus)

I'll see you in Summer
I'll see you in Summer
I'll see you in Summer

(Verse 2)

Because you know that I will miss you
Wherever you go
You know I will always make time to say hello

Remember to hold onto your friends
The old and the new
They make the road easier to get through

And may you love with all your heart
And may it never break
Find someone who gives you more than they take

(Pre-chorus)

Hold onto your dreams
if it seems that they are so far away
If there's one thing I've learned
Is that the tables will always turn
I'll see you in Summer

(Chorus)

I'll see you in Summer
I'll see you in Summer
I'll see you in Summer

(Bridge)

Wicked winds show you true friends
Like trees we will all have to bend
Storms will rise, but I know you'll do fine
Don't waste your time
Because time has a way, of flying bye..byyye

(Chorus)

I'll see you in Summer
I'll see you in Summer
I'll see you in Summer
