We rode around the sun together
Now a day's too much to ask without you
It's hard to tell where I end and you begin
Don't really care to know
When you rub your nose I swear my face hurts
When you're sick in bed I just can't function
I never cared to see the world
But now that I have you
Put me in a plane and lets go

I guess I was missing out
On life before I met you

If I counted all the ways
You complete me
I would die
Before I got that high
When you're far away
So is my heart
But when you're close to me
Everything's the way it's supposed to be

Don't want to read a book by myself
I need to know what you think
Don't want to watch a movie without you
Just doesn't have the same effect
The funny parts aren't funny
The good parts just don't mean as much
The scary parts don't bring a scream
And the sad parts just don't bring a tear

If I can't see your face
If you're not by my side

If I counted all the ways
You complete me
I would die
Before I got that high
When you're far away
So is my heart
And my mind and my soul and my hopes and my
dream

My life and my soul my everything
But when you're close to me
Everything's the way it's supposed to be

Wherever you go whether it's thick or thin
You know I will be there beside you
Wherever we find ourselves
As high as our dreams can take us
We'll be there as one

If I counted all the ways
You complete me
I would die
Before I got that high
When you're far away
So is my heart
And my mind and my soul and my hopes and my
My life and my soul my everything
But when you're close to me
Everything's the way it's supposed to be
