Give me back that wig I bought you, baby; darling, let
Your doggone head go bald
Give me back that wig I bought you, baby; darling, let
Your doggone head go bald
Yes, I come to find out this morning (God bless your Heart), baby, you don't need no hair at all

Yeah, you know I bought you a wig
I say, "We're going out and have some fun"
I looked around for you baby and what did I face?
A great big gun

Give me back that wig I bought you, woman, please ma'am,
Let your doggone head go bald
Yes, you know I done come to find out you don't need no
Hair at all

Yeah, you know my mama she done told me, told me just
What a woman'd do
What a woman'd do
Yes, "If she can't get a wig from the store, she'll come
'Round and try to buy one of them things from you"
