Some things change for the better
Some things just change
Some pain it can make you stronger
Some pain just stays

I know that you're somewhere you belong
But that doesn't make it any easier for me.

You're too far away
You're too far away
You're too far away
But this is as near as it gets to yesterday

Some things you come across everyday
But some things can't be replaced
Some things you will never understand
Why they don't work out like you planned

You're too far away
You're too far away
You're too far away
But this is as near as it gets to yesterday

Sometimes I wonder if I'm the one to blame
Some tears are worth it even though
They can't make it the same

You're too far away
You're too far away
You're too far away
But this is as near as it gets to yesterday

You're too far away
You're too far away
You're too far away
But this is as near as it gets to yesterday
