Mama, can you hear me cryin'?
As you lie in your cell somewhere.
There was so much pain in our past,
But I still want to let you know that I care.

Cause the easiest path for me is self destructing,
And I just want to let you know that I care.

Some people think that I'm crazy for falling in,
But mama, the words do not faze me,
because the love exists between me and you.

Yeah it's true that you did hurt me,
And made me feel sad and blue.
I always longed for a happier life,
I know you felt the same way too.

Cause the easiest path for me is self destructing,
And I just want to let you know that I care.

Lord, I'm so lonely,
How I long for her to hold me.
Lord, I'm forgiving,
I drew but maybe.

Oh how I miss her so,
Sing it to the heavens and let it all flow
