It was in a sad hotel,
On the back street of a broken dream.
Where you saved me from myself
And you satisfied my greivous need.
You came upon me like a flamme,
It burns inside me ever since that day.
But all you left me was your name,
And this longing that will not go away.

Chorus

Oh, Esmeralda,
Oh, girl, IÂ'd give you everything I have
If you will ease my blue condition.

Standing on the near side of the dawn,
All my so-called friends have faded away.
And IÂ'm wondering where you have gone,
And IÂ'm hoping that you did not lie to me.

Chorus

Bridge

Can you hear me calling?
Oh, IÂ'm calling.
Can you hear me calling?
IÂ'm calling for your love
