Every morning on every news flash
I hear the sorrow of the world
It seems like everybody's lost and Scared trying to make sense of it all
And as I travel to and fro, so many faces pass me by
I see lonely hearts living lonely lives just biding
Their time
And while we call ourselves civilized, many people
Living empty lives
As they drone their way through day and night

Chorus

I pray for our world, I pray for every child
I pray for our world to be filled with smiles
Like the colours of a rainbow and not just black and White
I pray for our world to be filled with light

I pray for all of us, to choose the path that's right
To believe in Allah every day of our lives

In the evening on the TV news, I see images of war.
I see brother killing brother with no consequence at All.
And while those who claim to be leaders, sell us tales
Of deceit.
But Allah alone know in their hearts what they reveal
And conceal.
And while we call ourselves civilized,
We go on killing human lives
Too caught up in our own web of lies

Chorus

Every mother, every father, every daughter, every son
Don't you see, that the answer lies only with the ONE
