I'm invisible
Cause you won't see me
And I've been all by myself
For way too long

It looks cold outside
Through the windowpane
On a broken day I just might stay
All alone, I'm all alone

Well I tried to call
But I just hear rings
And it's quiet in my solitude
You're my everything

It looks cold outside
Through the windowpane
On a broken day I just might stay

Here in this lonely cell
See everybody else
Laugh and dance through sunshine fields
But today I'm all alone

I don't want to see
Anyone but you
So I'll wait here in this empty room
For way too long

It looks cold outside
Through the windowpane
On a broken day I just might stay
It looks cold outside
Through the windowpane
On a broken day I just might stay
All alone, I'm all alone
