I can't find my favorite clothes
Think I left them at your home last night
And now I'm out of milk and drinking coffee black
Because I'm too damn tired to go down to the store

And I can't believe you said all those crazy things
Maybe it was a dream
Maybe you are really mad at me

Baby, I'm not going to beg you but now
Baby, we can't let this fall apart now
Baby, I think we had something real good so
Baby, let's pretend that everything's okay

I'll tell you what, I'm just gonna call you
And talk about the weather, and if you found my sweater
I think I left it by your bed, but the thoughts are running through my head
That you don't care, maybe I'll put on something else

And I can't believe you said all those crazy things
Maybe it was a dream
Maybe you are really mad at me

Baby, I'm not going to beg you but now
Baby, we can't let this fall apart now
Baby, I think we had something real good so
Baby, let's pretend that everything's okay

All last summer when we went down to the pier
And we laughed at stupid tourists and we drank a dozen beers
I thought that maybe we could last forever
And maybe that we would stay together
Now I'm not sure anymore

It's Friday, I think I'd better move my car
Sometime before eleven, before it's towed away
And I think the very same things about you
Maybe it's time that I move you too

So give me just another day

And I can't believe you said all those crazy things
Maybe it was a dream
Maybe you are really mad at me

Baby, I'm not going to beg you but now
Baby, we can't let this fall apart now
Baby, I think we had something real good so
Baby, let's pretend that everything's okay
Let's pretend that everything's okay
Let's pretend that everything's okay
Baby, let's pretend that everything's okay
