So you're done with dealing
Yeah, so you don't say?
Caught in the river,
The dam is broke,
But you just want to stay.

Oh, we all got our reasons
Oh, a story to tell
Oh, you can look but you wont find it here, child
Oh, no you wont
Oh, nothings left but blood in the well

You've been gone for so long now
Save your pity, so that's what you say
You were never caught in the river
You broke the dam,
It's where you want to stay

Oh, we all got our reasons
Oh, a story to tell
Oh, you can look but you wont find it here, child
Oh, no you wont
Oh, nothings left but blood in the well
