All cowards and criminals shake hands with me
I'm staying in tonight its all on tv
All cowards and criminals shake hands with me
I cut my nose off but still can't spite my face all the letters of the alphabet together in one place look at this I'm wasting time how could it being boring be the killer in disguise

you don't need to know
but all you have to do
is be prepared to dance all night
you don't need to know

radio plays silent i think that means a lot but i heard it for a minute or more seems thats all they've got
