Are you for real?
Are you for real?

Hey you, are you feeling like me too?
I need to get an answer out of you, well
All the days
All the time
All the lies lie on the line
Did you just try to set me off? well

Yeah ya know I'm easy
And I know it's true
That this situation
Isn't so easy on you

'Cause I
I need to know what you want, I
I wonder how you feel, and I
I need to know what you want
I can not guess anymore
Are you for real?
Are you for real?

Hey you, Is there truth behind your lies?
Is all this love
Or is it compromise? well
All the days
All the time
No regrets you're on my mind
Did you just try to set me off? well

Yeah this awkward silence
Feels so cold and used
Is this infatuation
Or am I addicted to you?

'Cause I
I need to know what you want, I

I wonder how you feel, and I
I need to know what you want
I can not guess anymore

Are you for real?

Re-re-re-reverse the beat
Back up direction
Tries and trust and planned out deception
The look in your eyes
Verbal dissection
Lose myself in you
And then sex then rejection
Self destruct in you arms
As your words stacks kill
Are you for real?
Are you for real?
Are you for real?

Hey you, are you feeling lonely too?
I need to get some answers, some answers

'Cause I
I need to know what you want, I
I wonder how you feel, and I
I need to know what you want
I can not guess anymore
'Cause I
I need to know what you want, I
I wonder how you feel, and I
I need to know what you want
I can not guess anymore
Are you for real?
Are you for real?
Are you for real?
