Brace yourself kid for the final collapse
'Cuz the world is spinning fast coming off its axis
Fight to survive, ode lay essay
And the kids with the guns shout, "Out of my way!"

Sex and violence are here to stay
Broadcast to the world
Out of control
Broadcast to the world
Out of control
Broadcast to the world
Out of control

I want to have it all and I want it right now I want to have it all and I want it now

So here we go reload another round implode We're spinning now until our heads explode And so I guess we know how far we all can go We're on a mission to destroy the world we know

The saints and the sinners have an identity crises
That spreads like a virus, multiplies and lysis
Down to the bottom looted graves they turn
Eat the razorblade apple open a can of worms
Narcotics on the weekends as the city it burns

Broadcast to the world Out of control Broadcast to the world Out of control Broadcast to the world Out of control

I want to have it all and I want it right now
I want to have it all and I want it now

So here we go reload another round implode We're spinning now until our heads explode And so I guess we know how far we all can go We're on a mission to destroy the world we know You know we all are to blame You know we all are to blame

Broadcast to the world Final collapse is on Heaven and hell collided

Broadcast to the world Final collapse is on We stand d-d-divided

Broadcast to the world Final collapse is on Heaven and hell collided

Broadcast to the world Final collapse is on We stand d-d-divided Divided, divided, divided

I want to have it all and I want it right now
I want to have it all and I want it now

So here we go reload another round implode We're spinning now until our heads explode And so I guess we know how far we all can go We're on a mission to destroy the world we know

Let's go
