Anesthetized by these lies
And I don't believe in truth
And I apologize but my sacrifice
Has nothing to do with you

'Cause I've been victimized like ocean size
From the blood your needle drew
And I apologize but my demise
Has everything to do with you

S-s-settle up with the devil, close the basement door
Full force on the shovel and unearth the floor
You were there one day but you're here no more
Like a stake through the heart and you play the whore

And you stole my soul, kleptomaniac
Can miss all but cannot take my anger back
Love is a violent attack, love is a violent attack

You cut me down, I feel no pain now
This nightmare is almost through
I hit the ground, no need to feel now
My time here is all but done, all but done

Now I'm up in the attic where the rafter's strong
So many reasons to be tragic and the list is long
And if you think I've lost hope you were never wrong
'Cause the churning of the rope is my battle song

S-s-settle up with the devil, close the basement door
Full force on the shovel and unearth the floor
You were there one day but you're here no more
Like a stake through the heart and you play the whore

'Cause you burnt my soul, pyromaniac
Can miss all but cannot take my anger back
Love is a violent attack, love is a violent attack

You cut me down, I feel no pain now
This nightmare is almost through
I hit the ground, no need to feel now
My time here is all but done, all but done, all but done

I can't stand on my own feet now
I can't crawl forever and a day
Felt like I was getting stronger
Before you turned and walked away

You cut me down, I feel no pain now
This nightmare is almost through
I hit the ground, no need to feel now
My time here is all but done

You cut me down, I feel no pain now
This nightmare is almost through
I hit the ground, no need to feel now
My time here is all but done

And I apologize but my demise
Has everything to do with you
(All but done)
I apologize but my demise
Has everything to do with you
(All but done)

I apologize but my demise
Has everything to do with you
