Well, I'm back again, you thought you got rid of me
I talk too much and all I care about is me
I'm back again, I'm here to waste more time of yours
I just needed a couple of bucks or maybe more

Well, let me throw my two cents in, then I'm out
Just want to let you know kid, that I got clout
And I'll use it in another night 'cause I choose it Got to run through 'cause you know I got to make this last

Well, I'm back again, I wonder why you're never home
I called ten times today, I guess you weren't alone
I'm back again, some things that I need to do
I need to borrow your car, I'll get it back by two

Second time through and I know you got some cash
Need a little dough 'cause I got to hook up a stash, right?
Or maybe, stay the night, just say no and I'll act like I'll go
And you said, ?1, 2, 3, go!?

Say kid, where you running off to?
I know you want me, can't live without me
Say kid, where you running off to?
I know you want me, can't live without me
Say kid, where you running off to?
I know you want me and you'll be back again
Gee-tar

Well, I'm back again and full of immaturity
I failed re-hab, got fired from the KFC
I'm back again, I see you when you stare at me
I know you love it and late at night, I'm in your dreams

Wait a minute now, why you trippin'?
Need a place to stay for the weekend
Listen 'cause I'm speaking, maybe take your car for a ride
Pick up my man, Zummy waitin' outside
Goldtoof said, ?1, 2, 3, go!?

Say kid, where you running off to?
I know you want me, can't live without me
Hey kid, where you running off to?
I know you want me, can't live without me
Hey kid, where you running off to?
I know you want me and you'll be back again

Chim-check it, 008 coming out first rate
Take a trip to your place even though you got a date
And I know it's just a game that you're playing I'm saying that your boyfriend is a dork, so I'm staying

So check me, and no I won't ask, you won't let me
Take all of your money if you bet me
Are you sorry that you met me?
My time is all up, so kid I got to go
A day in the life of super, ho, go

Say kid, where you running off to?
I know you want me, can't live without me
Hey kid, where you running off to?
I know you want me and you'll be back again

Hey kid, where you running off to?
Don't you want to roll back around again?
Hey kid, don't you want to be rocking out too?
Don't you want to roll back around again?
