I told the truth dear
But it wasn't good enough
You didn't wanna hear about
Or talk about our love
Don't really have a plan
Just know I've had all I can stand
It's only in the dark you even say my name
And it's fucking with my brain

Why don't you talk to me?
This ain't how it's supposed to be
Side by side we exist an easy fix

Sheets have faded and passions disappeared
I wonder do your arms remember how to hold me near?
Don't really understand
How you became just half a man
'Cause it's only in the dark you even say my name
And it's fucking with my brain

Why don't you talk to me?
This ain't how it's supposed to be
Side by side we exist an easy fix
You drank my energy
And now I'm lost to apathy
It's only in the dark you even say my name
And it's fucking with my brain

Swans so far
My lens are sore
I'll never make it back to shore

Why don't you talk to me?
This ain't how it's supposed to be
Side by side we exist an easy fix
You drank my energy
And now I'm lost to apathy
Dreaming black and white alieve the sight

Why don't you talk to me?
Why don't you talk to me?
