Oh Yeah Oooh

Dealing with life situations
Always seems to bring frustration
It makes me wanna cry to the skies
Shut myself from the world around me
Go somewhere they cannot find me
Why do mountains seem so high?

Everyone I seem to turn to
Is looking for a guy to turn to
But they just can't seem to find
No one wants to be alone
Everybody needs a home
'Cause inside, still is a child

If it wasn't for you
I'd never see the sun come shining through
I'd never realize what I could do
I'd never know love
If it wasn't for you, wasn't for you, wasn't for you

Ooh yeah
Steve

(Steve Wellington aka Dreadlox Holmes):
They say it's bliss, but I cannot see it
I should be glad, but I just don't feel it
Does this mean I'm out of line?
I want the things that ain't on the menu
I want to sing, but I choose the venue
People say I've lost my mind

Sometimes I feel so diminished
I haven't started, why do I feel finished?
And why me, why now, why, why?
I think I can, but there's hesitation
I'm ready for sweet levitation
If you please, you help me find

If it wasn't for you
I'd never see the sun come shining through

I'd never realize what I could do
I'd never know love
If it wasn't for you, wasn't for you, wasn't for you

We are one
And they all are ours
We are one
Said, if it wasn't for you

If it wasn't for you
I'd never see the sun come shining through
I'd never realize what I could do
I'd never know love
If it wasn't for you, wasn't for you, wasn't for you

If it wasn't for you
I'd never see the sun come shining through
I'd never realize what I could do
I'd never know love
If it wasn't for you, wasn't for you, wasn't for you

Yeah
Oh, if it wasn't for you
If it wasn't for you
If it wasn't for you, babe

If wasn't for you
