I look at you and see you're troubled
I really wanna make you better
I really wanna know how to make you smile
I really wanna be the one
You turn to when you're down
'Cause I really wish I knew how to make you smile

Your aura, like a cloud, surrounds you
And it's obscuring me
For I am here, but you don't see
You stumble through your day
Looks like you've lost your way
For there's light ahead, but you don't follow

And I look at you and see you're troubled
I really wanna make you better
I really wanna know how to make you smile
I really wanna be the one
You turn to when you're down
'Cause I really wish I knew how to make you smile

Now it's an uphill struggle
Takes all your strength to climb
But when you least expect it
Something good may happen just in time
So put your trust in me
And I won't let you fall
'Cause for your happiness
I would give my all

I look at you and see you're troubled
And I really wanna make you better
I really wanna know how to make you smile
I really wanna be the one
You turn to when you're down
'Cause I really wish I knew how to make you smile

Woah
What makes you
What makes you
What makes you smile?
What makes you

What makes you smile?
Said I wanna be the one
Who makes you
Makes you
Makes you smile
Makes you
Who makes you smile
