"Let It Rain"

I was down I saw hell in her eyes
I was something for her to despise
She was ready to go for a ride
But I took it much too far
I think that if I don't stop
The walls will crumble down
Let it rain

I've been holding it back for so long
It was hard but I had to be strong
Wouldn't let the pain get to you
Couldn't let the anger get through

I think that if I don't stop
The walls will crumble down

Been playing games with my mind
I can leave this nightmare behind
I can keep it inside if I try
Be happy living a lie
