Sunshine every single day
Sunny day for sunny sorrow
I was happy yesterday
Easy come, and easy go
You, can you feel the rain,
Beating of my heart
Colour of my pain

Leave the love and go
I'll be silent, I will know
What a shame, I love you line
Now it sounds like a crime
Late to ask you why
How you knew to say goodbye
But I know the life is dream
Every love and pain are only synonym

Baby, leave the love and go
Take tomorrow, take it all
What a shame, I love you line
Now it sounds like a crime
Have you ever seen a man
Begging you, on bleeding knees
If you want to break me down
So, do it, do it please

Second, baby, give me second to remember every night I made you sad
Too bad
Too late to blow my head
Baby, leave the love and go
Take tomorrow, take it all
I must live, but God knows why
It is my turn to cry
Too late to die
